Customer Reviews

Note: I was provided a copy in exchange for an honest review. All opinions are 100% my own. I teach Sunday School, and I was thrilled to get the chance to use this book! With over 200 pages, there are many Bible stories included, from Creation to Paul. Best of all, all the pages are reproducible!! That was so helpful for me, since I needed copies for my whole Sunday School class. The characters are adorable and are fun to color, and they illustrate the different stories well! This coloring book is perfect for use at home, in Sunday School or Jr. Church, with homeschooling, or even if your child is sitting with you and listening to the pastor's message! My Grandsons love the Buck Denver DVD's on the Bible we got (12 DVD's) them last year for Christmas. They want more!! Well i am getting them the coloring books and three other Buck Denver DVDs for Christmas this year. Highly recommend this quality 204 page color book.

The What's in the Bible coloring pages are great, as is the What's in the Bible series. I have used the coloring pages available on the What's in the Bible website and so I was excited to have this resource. If it included a CD-rom for easier printing of multiple (and nicer-looking) copies, it would be perfect.

I purchased the video set at the local Christian book store when it was on sale but wanted some printed materials to go with it. These coloring pages are the perfect graphic reminder of the lessons in the videos; something the kids can refer back to. I am learning, too!

I bought this to use in K-1 grade Sunday School. I am very happy with the content and will look at other selections when more coloring pages are needed.

I purchased this to go along with the DVD set. The DVD's, are very very easy for our children to understand. We watch a DVD on Sunday night and use the corresponding pages from the coloring book on Wednesday nights. It has been a fantastic way to introduce our entire youth group to "what's in the Bible"!!!!

Very creative and informative, we have the entire 13 disc series plus a couple of the special editions. Awesome resource for the entire family.

My boys love every dvd ages 5, 7 and 8.... wonderful investment for their hearts and mind too!
