Customer Reviews

4 stars for the stories 1 star for the repackaging of these stories If you have read Bendis's Avengers, then you already have read these stories. During the pre-order phase, neither Marvel nor stated that this was a collection of OLD stories repackaged to capitalize on Netflix's fantastic tv series starring this drunken and financially strapped wash-up super hero turned private eye (spoiler: her life eventually improves). The stories are very good - Brian Michael Bendis created Jessica Jones and turned her into a very compelling character that was quite well rounded. He supplied her with some of the most wonderful dialogue that Marvel offered up in the 00s (particularly in her scenes with Luke Cage...it's probably the best written romantic relationship in Marvel). This collection is disjointed though - it puts together a series of disparate stories. If you like Jessica Jones, go read all three trades of Alias, every issue of the Pulse and Bendis's entire New Avengers run. You'll be pleased.
