Customer Reviews

Pretty good information is provided on how to effectively deliver sermons. Some helpful tips and pointers, as well as good direction for the preacher. I would recommend to new preachers looking to get better.

I purchased this book for a college course. This book is excellent book especially for those who are beginning to preach. I gained a better insight on how to present my sermons and how to prepare a word for a specific audience. I would recommend this book to anyone in ministry.

This is a very good book for anyone who preachers! It's not a book on homiletics. It's simply a good book about preaching.

Excellent book for those interested in enlightening methods and techniques. The author proves knowledgeable in the subject matter and is commended for writing this book and sharing his thoughts.

Wow! Simple yet clear insight in to the world of the preacher and his need for a total dependance on the Lord Jesus.
