Customer Reviews

nice quality cards with a good selections of words. I found another review of a packet and found it

esp. helpful that someone had taken the time to list what words were included so decided to do the same. the words included are as follows a, about, after, again, all, an, and, are, ask, at, ate, away, be, been, before, but, by, call, can, come, could, did, do, each, eat, find, first, for, from, get, go, good, had, has, have, he, her, here, him, his, I, if,in, into, is, it, know, like, little, long, look, made, make, many, may, more, my, no, not, now, of, on, once, or, other, out, over, said, see, she, some, stop, than, that, the, their, them, these, they, think, this, time, to, two,up, use, was, we, were, what, when, who, will Wish I had known from the description that the cards have words on both sides. Makes it hard to split known and unknown words in to piles or to play games where you want to turn the cards over.

These are simple cards, compared to the Frank Schaffer cards, which are too busy and distracting, but some of these are not sight words and too cumbersome for a kindergartener. We are using about half of them. Better to make your own cards.

The cards are just the ticket for children learning to read. The sight cards are strong, boldly written, easy to wipe clean due to finish on each card and fun for the child.

My nephew has just started kindergarten so I purchased these to give him a head start. I tape them to the refrigerator until he masters each card. The cards are durable and easy to read. Glad I purchased them.

Every word comes with a sentence on the back of the card that you can practice with your child. Very much worth the 5 bucks you spend on this.

These cards are a good basic learning tool. Words are written on both sides of the cards, one side orange and one side blue. I would have preferred that one side be the "easier" words and one side the "harder" words, especially since there are two word phrases on some cards (see the picture of the product). But overall, a good set. Each card is about the size of two playing cards put together. Definitely a good value. Would purchase again.

Clear animated images, nice big BOLD writing. Love the colors. My 1 year 8 month year old is picking it up real well. These flash cards are great for the price. They are flimsy and easily bent, so you have to control them but they are still helping my 18-month old daughter. The pictures keep her focused and now she's starting to point at the pictures. These are great cards to start with word recognition.
