This is a children's version of the Washington Irving ghost story. My 7-year-old son read it in one afternoon and loved it. This will get any child reading who is the least bit interested in scary stories. Especially recommended for kids who are a little too young for Goosebumps but desperately want to read them.

My son LOVES this story, in all its many versions. Easy reading(second grade) and lovely illustrations. A must have for those who love to be "spooked"!

I love this story and the pictures in this particular book are great at creating a Halloween mood! And draWings are accurate to the real place.

A classic, brilliantly written novel. A schoolmaster, and a little town in colonial New York, create a normal, sometimes humorous beginning to the novel. However, as the tale goes on, you hear of the Legend of the Headless horseman of Sleepy Hollow. This mysterious, classic thriller will have you sifting through the pages you'll never be prepared for the unexpected, climactic conclusion! A must read for any Halloween fan! Just a brilliant story, hands down.
