Customer Reviews

Ben Ericson has it has it and for Nina Hargrave but he is letting the fact that he was born of Mexican heritage stop him from telling her how he feels. When Lenox set out to bring five women out west with marriage in mind for them Ben choose Nina's letter. Ben fell in love with her from the letter and has fallen more in love in the past six months. He plays the piano at the saloon and shares a place with Keith the bar tender. NINA is attacked by Cody Stewart and Ben rescues her and she is still sore in her ribs from Melissa's attack on her. This is a good story of love not knowing any thing about color.

Beautiful story. This is a great series and author keeps you entertained and you don't want to put the books down. I highly reccommend this series. Be sure to read the next book "Kidnapped for Love". I won this book but would have bought the whole series.

I really enjoyed this story in the Mail Order Brides on the Run series. Very clean and nicely written. Chivalry abounds in this love story and I highly recommend it. I received a copy in exchange for an honest review.

This story is very good and very exciting these poor women what they have gone thru. Now I must go on to see what happens to Renee. I highly recommend this series of books.

Another great book, and I have enjoyed every word of it. Reading stories about the mail order brides is very interesting and entertaining.
