Saw this book at a friend's house, and i loved the prayer and pictures. It rhymes, it's a thank you prayer, it's repetitive, and it basically takes you through the creation story without making that obvious. A great tool for teaching my kids to pray. The pictures are adorable and colorful. My girls love the animals and the moon and stars. It also makes a great baptismal gift. I got one for my goddaughter on her one-year baptism birthday.

I love this book. It is such a great resource to read to my son to be able to teach him about who God is. Each page reads in rhyme and somewhat of a prayer fashion ending with "Thank You God, Amen." It lists many facets of God's creation and the illustrations are adorable. My son loves it and asks for it.

I can't say it enough. The Little Blessings line of children's books are wonderful! My girls love them. I think I read the three we have at least 10 times a day each. They keep a young child's attention with vibrant colors, cute rhymes, and a wonderful message about our Lord. I will certainly buy more from this line.

Love this series of books. Whenever I have a baby shower, baptism or first/second birthday to buy for, I include a couple of these. I really enjoy the way they answer the questions and the scripture notes at the end.

I love that this book is all hard pages. My toddler can look through them and I don't have to worry about him tearing pages. The message is great too, my son picked up really fast that we need to be thankful for what we have.

My son received this book as a gift and absolutely loves it! The pictures are adorable with cute children and animals. The rhyming prayers are catchy and it is a simple way to introduce prayer to children through a story book. We highly recommend!

We love the Little Blessings line. I've used this book to keep the kids busy during Mass, and we've read it numerous times at bedtime. The message is simple, the illustrations are sweet, and everyone can relate.

We bought this book for our 18 month old. She loves the pictures, we love that this is a Christian book. Board books are all that we can buy right now, because she'd destroy the pages (and eat them!) otherwise. The book is set up as a prayer, thanking God for various things. She's been saying amen a lot lately. Love it.
