Customer Reviews

While its not the same as the Guinness Book of World records, this one is much better for kids. Organized in a way that elementary kids can understand and follow, and the reading level is around a 4 grade level. My 2nd grader loves the books.

I bought this for my grandson . He is eight years old. He was so excited to read and share information. What a thrill to see enthusiasm for reading.

Nice quality but not quantity. It is make for young people but I wish it contains more facts than the book has in its present form.

Bought this as a little Christmas gift for my 7-year-old daughter. She loves to look up random facts in it. For the price it was a fun and moderately educational gift.
